LIEUTENANT MARBURG MRS. T. SIM LEE IS WEDS NOBLEWOMAN LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Baltimore Man Is Bridegroom of Twenty-five Guests Attend Party At the Lafayette Hotel in Honor of Miss Mary Lee.

News has reached this country of the marriage of Lieut. Theodore Marburg, Jr., of the British Royal Naval Flying Corps, to Baroness Gessle de Vavario, a young Belgian noblewoman, at Netley, England.

The engagement was made known a few days ago, and the announcement of the marriage was contained in a cable to Lieut. Marburg's mother, Mrs. Theodore Marburg. The ceremony was performed in the Church of St. Edward the Confessor.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Marburg and his father, Theodore Marburg, of Baltimore, formerly American Minister to Belgium, who is with them in England, have taken passage aboard the White Star liner Adriatic, which will sail from Southampton on May 3.

Mrs. T. Sim Lee entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon of twenty-four covers today in the ball room of the Lafayette in honor of Miss Mary Lee.

The guests were seated at small tables which were adorned with baskets of jonquils.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome N. Bonaparte left Washington yesterday for the Hot Springs, Va., where they will be at the Homestead for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Peter, Jr., went to New York yesterday and are at the Plaza.
